

	INTEGRATED QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT AND SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM
	COMPANY POLICY Ref. UNI EN ISO 9001:2015, UNI EN ISO 13485:2016, UNI EN ISO 14001:2015, UNI ISO 45001:2018	Form POL Rev.01 04/12/2019
MARGI s.r.l

Management Notification as regard to the Company's quality, environment, and safety policy objectives fulfilment.

MARGI Managing Direction:

is committed to providing products in compliance with applicable reference standards, costs, mandatory and contractual requirements agreed with customers.

confirms its commitment to the understanding of customers' needs, and for this reason it performs a targeted planning of its activities, operating in accordance with the product requirements, and in compliance with the laws and regulations of countries in which it operates it is directly involved in the conduct and monitoring of its processes with a view to constant improvement, actively using the available resources, finalizing them to achieve the expected results and their objectives, while acting with particular regard to the containment of environmental interaction.

It takes responsibility for the effectiveness of its systems, constantly verifying their effectiveness and compatibility with its context and with the determined strategic guidelines.

actively coordinates and engages its employees that protects through the respect for people, without any distinction of race, religion, sex, and in full control and maintenance of regulations related to anti-injury and health and safety, enhancing every single function so that everyone acquires the skills and motivation necessary to carry out their duties in full awareness of what their business requires.

assess all risks by adopting strategies aimed at eliminating or containment of these, proactively identifying and exploiting the opportunities that arise at the same time.

It pursues a way of continuous renewal of its equipment and its plants by increasing the performance of the quality, safety and environmental aspects, supervising, in addition, the planned maintenance activities of the same equipment and the same plants.

is committed to the systematic search for new raw materials and chemicals with lower risk profiles and more bio/eco-friendly.

This policy is disclosed to the whole organisation and available to all stakeholders. The policy is periodically reviewed, in occasion of the management review, to ensure that its coherence and adequacy is maintained.

The Management

